

GRAPHIC DESIGN AND PROFESSIONAL DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Raquel Durazo

Master of Arts in Digital Graphic Design

CURRICULUM VITAE

She has completed the total credits for her Masters of Digital Graphic Design from the Universidad Iberoamericana in Tijuana. She also finished her degree in Graphic Design, gaining Recognition of Merit at the University of UIA, studying one year at the Technological Institute of Higher Studies (ITESO), Jesuit University of Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico.

She has owned Agdur Design and Photography Studio since 2006, where she has developed many graphic, editorial, tri-dimensional, and photographic projects from different clients around the state.

She has eight years of university teaching experience. She has taught various courses for different Bachelors degrees including: Design, Communication, Marketing, and Criminology. In those different degrees she has specialized in teaching courses such as: three-dimensional computer animation, advertising photography, forensic photography, new product design, and corporate image, among others. She has participated as a judge in various professional examinations and also has been invited to participate as a judge in various photographic competitions.